

BIPOC and Supportive Non-Profits July 16th:

Local Non-Profits:

The Montana Racial Equity Project

THE MONTANA
RACIAL EQUITY
PROJECT

“The Montana Racial Equity Project, a nonprofit and nonpartisan organization, advocates equity and justice for historically marginalized, disenfranchised, and oppressed peoples in Montana. We educate, train, and activate organizers, individuals, groups, organizations, institutions, and businesses to invest in interrupting racism, bigotry, and prejudice whenever encountered.” - The Montana Racial Equity Project

National Non-Profits

Cool & Dope

“Cool & Dope is a tribe of positivity creators led by me, Cavanaugh Bell, Chief Positivity Creator! When I was five years old, I got tired of people telling me that I was too young to volunteer. And after being bullied, I channeled that darkness inside of me into a bright light that I’m using to change the world! So, if you’ve landed here to learn more about us, then we need your good vibes (and your kind heart) to help us end all bullying worldwide by 2030.” - Cool & Dope
